Go Forward . . . The Reward Lies Ahead!

Go Forward!

Often the Christian life is beset with dangers, and duty seems hard to perform. The imagination pictures impending ruin before, and bondage and death behind. Yet the voice of God speaks clearly, Go forward. Let us obey the command, even though our sight cannot penetrate the darkness. The obstacles that hinder our progress will never disappear before a halting, doubting spirit. Those who defer obedience till every uncertainty disappears, and there remains no risk of failure or defeat, will never obey. Faith looks beyond the difficulties, and lays hold of the unseen, even Omnipotence, therefore it cannot be baffled. Faith is the clasping of the hand of Christ in every emergency. ChS 110.1

Welcome to All!

Another month has flown by. We're almost a quarter of the way through the year! The world is fast moving toward the closing scenes and our Saviour is earnestly seeking to save all who call upon His precious name.

The Steps to Christ project is moving forward at every turn. There's not a day that goes by where we can't see God's hand directing our path. We're doing our best to keep up but we cannot do it alone. We need your help.

Our ideas are altogether too narrow. God calls for continual advancement in the work of diffusing light. We must study improved ways and means of reaching the people. We need to hear with ears of faith the mighty Captain of the Lord's host saying, "Go forward." We must act, and God will not fail us. He will do His part when we in faith do ours. Brethren and sisters who have been long in the truth, you have not done the work God calls upon you to do. Where is your love for souls? ChS 110.2

What gifts and talents has the Lord given you? Are you able to help? Has He given you an ability to do marketing or perhaps to fundraise? Do your skills involve technology, software such as building apps? Has He given you the ability to earn means that could be supporting His work? We need you. We need all the prayers, labour, and financial support to finish the work that has been placed before us. It is with a peace that surpasses understanding that we keep advancing day by day. We know that God is faithfully guiding His people to do all that He has asked of them. After all, He is the One who gives us the breath we need each day and He is the One who gives us the abilities. We are His workmen.

It was the joy of Christ to save souls. Let this be your work and your joy. Perform all duties and make all sacrifices for Christ's sake, and He will be your constant helper. Go straight forward where the voice of duty calls; let no seeming difficulties hinder you. Take up your God-given responsibilities, and as you bear your sometimes heavy burdens, do not ask, "Why idle stands my brother, no yoke upon him laid?" Do the duty nearest you, and do it thoroughly and well, not coveting praise, but working for the Master because you belong to Him. ChS 110.3

These quotes have been such a blessing to each one of us. We take comfort knowing that this entire ministry is in His hands and all we have to do is surrender and follow His commands. That is our daily cause. That is the secret to true success.

God IS calling each of us. There are no exceptions. It is our desire to follow in Christ's steps of sacrifice, surrender, and service that directly reflect our preparedness for Heaven.

So who am I . . .

Raised in a loving family. I am the youngest of 4 girls. Mum would have identified as new age and my Dad was an Atheist. I was encouraged to believe in whatever I thought was best for me. I was raised with good morals - do unto others as you would have done to yourself? Even though I was not raised a Christian, the values and morals that Christianity brings were instilled in us as children.

Fast forward to when I was 30 years old. I heard the voice of God speak to my heart and mind for the very first time. It literally changed my life. Ever since, I have not stopped listening to His voice. My journey has been amazing, challenging, inspiring, littered with miracles, heartbreaking and full of rejoicing. What God has done in my life is nothing short of praiseworthy and I stand here today - a sinner - who is learning to surrender my will to Him every day.

My name is Nicole - it means "victory of the people". I have no idea what that really means. All I pray for is that God has the victory over my life every moment of every day. I just want to remain hidden in Him. The One who has the victory!

I encourage all to read Desire Of Ages chapter 12 - The Victory. The depth of truth and love in this chapter is palpable. An incredible scene, that when carefully studied opens up what Christ's victory really does mean to us and how we too can partake in this victory over the enemy in our own lives.

The course of God's people should be upward and onward to victory. A greater than Joshua is leading on the armies of Israel. One is in our midst, even the Captain of our salvation, who has said for our encouragement, "Lo, I am with you always, even unto the end of the world." "Be of good cheer; I have overcome the world." He will lead us on to certain victory. What God promises, He is able at any time to perform. And the work He gives His people to do, He is able to accomplish by them.—Testimonies for the Church 2:122. – ChS 110.4

Marching Orders

The duke of Wellington was once present where a party of Christian men were discussing the possibility of success in missionary effort among the heathen. They appealed to the duke to say whether in his judgment such efforts were likely to prove a success commensurate to the cost. The old soldier replied: "Gentlemen, what are your marching orders? Success is not the question for you to discuss. If I read your orders aright, they run thus, 'Go ye into all the world, and preach the gospel to every creature.' Gentlemen, obey your marching orders.n" ChS 77.3

Let's Go Forward together to finish the work He has laid before us.

In His Service,

Nicole

Current Needs!

The magnitude of this project is so financially large that it becomes impossibly daunting. To this end, we will always break down a few specific and pressing needs that are much smaller and more easily achieved. This way all will have an opportunity to play a meaningful role in this end time effort. Please consider supporting the following bearing in mind that 100% of your donation goes directly to the need you have chosen to support.
